

Chugg A Lugg

Finest Pint Rock!

Biography:

Rock 'n' Roll knows only one direction: straight ahead. The next song, the next drink. For Chugg A Lugg, everything follows this principle—straight in, down, and right to the heart. The name Chugg A Lugg comes from "chug-a-lug," meaning "to drink in one gulp." In a way, it's all about chugging and rocking. The band delivers straightforward, hard rock sound with classic two guitars, bass, and drums.

Bobby Maddox, a native speaker, completes the band with his vocals - without a "German Accent." They call it Pint Rock. As fresh as a freshly tapped beer and a little bigger than what you usually consider large. It fits. Pint Rock is a lot of fun: for the band, the audience; in the pub, raw and straight through the backline, in the club, or at a festival over a big PA system. A cold beer pairs perfectly with it.

Chugg A Lugg are:

Bobby Maddox – Vocals und Lead Guitar

Andreas Bethke – Guitar & Backing Vocals

Andy Gi – Bass & Backing Vocals

Michael Yeneroglu – Drums & Backing Vocals

The members of Chugg A Lugg bring many years of band and stage experience, some spanning decades. Their enjoyment of Pint Rock sparks like a fire, igniting the audience.
