

CHUGG A LUGG - PINT ROCK.

Rock'n'Roll only knows one direction: Straight ahead!

That's exactly where Chugg A Lugg come in. Three musicians, original songs, no detours: guitar, bass, drums and three voices. Loud, direct and with just the right amount of dirt under their fingernails.

Chugg A Lugg call their sound Pint Rock - handmade, no-frills Rock'n'Roll with hard rock roots, catchy hooks and an unmistakable love of Rock'n'Roll, cold beer and a damn good time.

And the name says it all: "Chug-a-lug" means to down a drink in one go. With Chugg A Lugg, Rock'n'Roll works much the same way - pour it, crank it up, knock it back.

Frontman and guitarist Bobby Maddox, a native English speaker, delivers the vocals and guitar riffs, Andy Gi lays down the foundation on bass and vocals, and Michael Yeneroglu drives the songs forward on drums and vocals.

What comes out of these three musicians isn't meant to be as complicated as possible. It's meant to sound big, stick in your head and work live.

Because that's exactly where Pint Rock belongs: on stage.

Whether it's a rock club, pub, hall or festival - Chugg A Lugg don't see their shows as simply playing through their songs. The band wants to turn every show into a night shared with the audience: loud, up close, energetic and with enough room for that moment when a concert turns into one hell of a Rock'n'Roll party.

The musicians bring many years of experience in bands, studios and on stage. But Chugg A Lugg isn't about yesterday. It's about the next song, the next show and the next pint.

The current album "Pint Rock" was released by TIMEZONE Records in 2024 and sums up exactly what Chugg A Lugg stand for:

Honest Rock'n'Roll. Cold Beer. Good Times.
